

Large sycamore which formerly stood near Worthington, Indiana, and which measured 42 ft. 3 in. in circumference at 5 ft. above ground; the east branch was 27 ft. 3 in. in circumference and the west branch was 23 ft. 2 in. (Journal of Heredity, Vol. 6:407:1915).